

Support for Autistic Adults in Waveney

This quick reference guide is for autistic adults (with or without a diagnosis). The services below are here to support. Please reach out to them for help.

Scan the QR code to access the electronic version of this guide

General advice and information

- Norfolk Autism Partnership Board directory of services lists services for where to get support
- Ambitious about Autism provides information on making sense of your autism diagnosis. This includes videos about the experience of getting a diagnosis in adulthood, along with other information such as advice on explaining your autistic needs.
- Recovery College provides a range of courses that includes a living well with autism course.
- ASD Helping Hands provides an autism information and advice service.
- Citizens Advice East Suffolk provides free confidential and impartial advice.

Understanding autism

Autism Awareness e-learning is a free course designed and created by autistic people living in Norfolk to spread awareness and understanding of autism.

Too Much Information is a campaign run by the National Autistic Society, which developed videos to help the public better understand autism.

Employment and training

- National Autistic Society provides employment guides and an employment module for autistic people looking for a job, as well as information for autistic people in work.
- Work Well Suffolk provides support for those wanting to get back into or stay in work.
- Pro Autism provides a free online employability course for autistic university students and graduates.
- East Coast College provides a classroom-based employability skills course
- Volunteer Suffolk is a dedicated platform for volunteering in Suffolk

Family and carers

- Autism Central provides support and resources for parents and families of autistic adults in the East of England, including a free Peer Education Programme.
- Suffolk Family Carers provides support and advice to carers including carers assessments.

Mental health difficulties

- Qwell provides free and anonymous online support and counselling for adults.
- SANEline is a national helpline service that provides specialist emotional support, guidance and information to anyone affected by mental illness including family, friends and carers. Call 0300 304 7000 between 4pm to 10pm.
- Samaritans provide a confidential conversation at any time to talk about all sorts of concerns that you may have, call 116 123.

Mental health crisis

- NHS 111 Mental Health Option 24-hour urgent mental health support. Dial 111 and choose the mental health option.
- SHOUT 85258 a 24-hour crisis text service for mental health - Text "shout" to 85258 for urgent mental health support.

Research

- Autistica provide opportunities for autistic adults and their families to get involved in research about autism.

Diagnosis - Autism Assessment

- Skylight Psychiatry and Mind Professionals are commissioned by Norfolk and Waveney Integrated Care Board to provide adult autism diagnostic assessments.

Reasonable adjustments

- Reasonable Adjustments for people with learning disabilities and autistic people is a guide on what autistic people using health service and their supporters can reasonably expect.
- Autism Friendly Communications Top Tips is a coproduced guide to support services to work more effectively with autistic people to meet their needs. Autistic adults can use the guide to think about and share with those who support them the things that work and don't work for them.
- Self-Advocacy Booklet is a workbook that details a variety of situations to make notes of what you may need to say or ask for when you speak to someone, such as a health or social care professional, employer or someone undertaking repairs to your home.
- Autism Anglia Autism Alert Card with evidence of diagnosis and small charge of £5 apply for a credit card sized autism alert card. Can be used during stressful situations to let people know you are autistic and may need some support.
- NAS Autism Alert Card a free downloadable autism alert card that can be used during stressful situations to let people know you are autistic and might need extra support.
- My Health Passport is a resource for autistic people to communicate their health needs.
- Support for autistic people to access healthcare services in hospital settings.
 - Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital learning disability and autism team
 - website provides contact information.
 - James Paget University Hospital learning disability and autism team,
 - Queen Elizabeth University Hospital learning disability and autism team.

Life Skills

- Adult Learning provides a range of courses to help develop life skills and offers independent living skills programmes for people who may need additional support.

Housing

- Shelter housing provides advice on homelessness, private renting, evictions, tenancy deposits, repairs, benefits, money problems, council housing and mortgage repossessions.

Support groups

- Autism Anglia provides details of support groups in Suffolk.
- Asperger East Anglia provide a range of support services for autistic adults.

Keeping Safe

- Tricky Friends is a short animation to help people to understand what good friendships are and when they might be harmful and what they can do.
- Suffolk Safeguarding Partnership provides resources to understand about keeping safe.

Money and Benefits

- Money Helper provides information about benefits and everyday money guidance.
- National Autistic Society provides information and a training module about managing your money including your rights and help available.